True/False

1. Compared to those who have never used tobacco, the odds of losing all teeth was 23 times greater for every day tobacco users.

2. Oral disease can have an effect on systemic health in two ways, direct bacterial extension and through the inflammation response.

3. Fear is the number one reason why Vermonters cite for not accessing dental care.

Answers: 1. True 2. True 3. False (Cost is the reason)